City of South Milwaukee Police Respond to Shooting

South Milwaukee WI –

On Sunday May 22, 2011 at about 10:14pm the City of South Milwaukee Police and Fire Department responded to a home in the 1300 block of Monroe Ave in response to a 911 call from a wireless phone. The caller, a 29 year old Milwaukee man reported that his friend, a 30 year old South Milwaukee man, had been shot with a firearm. The responding personnel found the victim conscious and alert. The victim reported accidentally shooting himself. He was transported by ambulance to a local hospital for treatment, where he remains. His condition is not known. The investigation is on-going.
