SOUTH MILWAUKEE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER ANNOUNCES 10TH ANNIVERSARY PERFORMING ARTS SERIES

(South Milwaukee, WI) – The South Milwaukee Performing Arts Center (SMPAC) announces the 10th Anniversary Performing Arts Series.

"Our 10th Anniversary Series features 10 shows that highlight topics relevant to our hometown and surrounding community. It will be the busiest, most diverse and engaging season in our history. Each show speaks to a memory of our city's proud past, reflects on a shared experience, or brings hope and optimism for a bright, creative future," says Chad Piechocki, SMPAC Director.

"Some shows are celebratory and entertaining, while others address important social issues like the changing nature of Main Street or what it means to be "broken" yet inspired," says Piechocki. "We strive to bring together diverse audiences and foster a deeper connection to our world and with one another. To this end, we're planning a season finale that engages our patrons as key collaborators. Our 10th Anniversary Gala will be a variety show curated by patrons within the SMPAC community, featuring Tomas Kubinek as Master of Ceremonies." A preview of the upcoming shows was held at the theatre June 10 for season subscribers and SMPAC patrons.

SMPAC is a premier performing arts center serving southeastern Wisconsin. In addition to the Annual Performing Arts Series, SMPAC serves the School District of South Milwaukee and is a professionally-managed rental facility for other presenters and organizations.

slide trombone, banjo, upright bass and drums, performing material such as Twelfth Street Rag, Muskrat Ramble, High Society, Tiger Rag, Milenberg Joys, Margie, Tailgate Ramble and Royal Garden Blues. Almost all of musicians in this band can trace their Louisiana musical heritage back generations to the originators, performers and celebrities of this music.

"Playing our music, and learning from our forefathers of New Orleans music, my generation understands just how important it is in our song, dance and culture to celebrate life. We celebrate new life, a life taken away by death, all the life experiences in between and even the afterlife. It's all in the traditional music of my people and I am proud to say that the music we present as the Creole Jazz Men celebrate a great genre, lifestyle and time in our history and I'm honored to present it whenever I can." Davell Crawford

ARENA DANCES: Main Street Project Saturday, October 18, 2014 at 7:30 pm

"My responsibility as an artist is to ask questions and incite awakening, both in myself and my collaborators, through the making of work, and in my audience, through their experience of performance. I am deeply concerned with making my work relevant to the public that I am addressing." Mathew Janczewski, Artistic Director

Mathew Janczewski's ARENA DANCES creates and performs original modern dance choreography promoting community gathering, dialogue and impact. The work is abstract in form, giving shape to emotions, exploring the depths and the limits of what drives us as humans to connect, to break away, to survive. Just as our emotions can veer wildly, ARENA incorporates a highly kinetic style of movement, a sweeping physicality that takes in a broad range of feelings and the posturings we may make to protect ourselves in the world.

The Main Street Project explores how current attitudes, relationships and habits have changed in an information-driven technological world by utilizing integrative forms of media – juxtaposing visceral and explosive movement with electro/techno/pop music, folk-inspired songs, and projections of filmed interviews with people from diverse communities and backgrounds. The work illuminates themes of isolation, community and humanity in contemporary society to ask the question: Does "Main Street" still exist?

In addition to the performance, ARENA DANCES will host a weeklong residency that will include a select group of high school students and senior community members designed to engage the different generations for dialogue, storytelling and movement. The presentation of Arena Dances: Main Street Project was made possible by the New England Foundation for the Arts' National Dance Project, with lead funding from the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Imago Theatre: Frogz

Friday, October 24, 2014 at 7:30 pm

"Inspired Fun" New York Times

"Terrific!" NPR

Rare theatrical event - a family friendly entertainment ... lively ... inventive ... remarkably acrobatic ... mysterious ... deeply satisfying ... sensational ... thrilling ... hysterical ... truly goofy fun ... now, that's entertainment" ... Boston Globe

FROGZ! is penguins playing musical chairs, a cat trapped in a giant paper bag, orbs running wild through the audience, and a madcap revue of illusion, comedy and fun that has inspired audiences worldwide. FROGZ! has been performed in China, Europe and at some of North America's most revered festivals. FROGZ! has been described as Cirque Du Soleil-evoking acrobatics mixed with Mummenschanz-like mime, set in a unique –yet accessible– French-influenced avant-garde playground.

FROGZ! is the Portland, OR-based IMAGO's signature work. It is an unforgettable experience for children and adults alike. The ingenious masks, mesmerizing movement, outlandish costumes, and original music score create a carnival of the absurd, presenting universal themes with a light touch, as animals take on human characteristics and inanimate objects like orbs and slinkys engage in silly humanistic movements. FROGZ! is often recognized by fans and critics alike as a remarkable addition to the American theatrical canon.
