RE: SMPD Case #14-030094 - Threat Complaint

On Dec 3, 2014 at about 9:10am, the SMPD received a call from the South Milwaukee School District of an online threat made to a student at the South Milwaukee High School. Officers were dispatched to the school to investigate the threat. The school was on "lockdown" while the SMPD investigated the complaint. The student was unharmed. No threats to any other students, staff, visitors, or the school itself were made. Subsequent investigation resulted in three South Milwaukee High School students taken into custody.
